The 2010 World Cup Draw - 4th December 2009

Posted on 05/12/2009 | Leave a comment

Last night saw the draw for next year's 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa. At a celeb filled event, England managed to avoid the fear factor teams of Portugal and France and have picked up Algeria, The USA and Slovenia, probably the best result fans could have hoped for. With the set up the way it is, we can't meet the likes of Germany and Brazil to the latter stages, should England make it through in first place.
